CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to our Sponsors.

The gorgeous and delightful Rebecca Amos and the very talented and dynamic David Abela from 3 Degrees Marketing recently got engaged. Rebecca is a syndicate member in Nisha and David is the male mascot in Zsa Zsa Gabeel. Congratulations to Rebecca and David on your engagement from all the Ggees syndicate members. Make sure you all ask to have a look at Rebecca's engagement ring next time you see her, it is just beautiful and we believe David chose the ring himself.

HORSE NEWS

NISHA (Semipalatinsk x Brave Bride)

Nisha has been in the initial training stages for about one month now, beginning with her preliminary fitness and conditioning work at Lindsay Park, Angaston. As she progresses through she will reach the early stages of galloping in early August. We will then receive weekly training reports keeping us up to date on her progress.

PERMAISCUOUS (Permai x Danzero)

Permaiscuous is in training and Tony McEvoy is very happy with her progress, reporting that she is a little aggressive in her work, however in good order and that he can not fault her at this early stage.

She had a strong gallop on the big grass track at Angaston the track was still very wet, she was uncomfortable in the going however still worked nicely, and has come through her early fitness in good style. We look forward to her return to Lindsay Park Flemington.

RED STILETTOS (Pins x Red Sophia)

Red Stiletto has returned to Euroa to recuperate, once she has completed her period of confinement she will be turned out for a spell either at Euroa or return to Lindsay Park Angaston.

ZSA ZSA GABEEL (Zabeel x Golden Winds)

Zsa Zsa stepped up for her first gallop this preparation, in which she worked over 800m up the 'viscoride' track and was asked to improve over the last 400m. I was pleased with her work although she was a little lazy. She will require one or two more of these conditioning gallops before we look to get more serious with her out on the main grass track.
