

GGEES JULY NEWSLETTER

WELCOME

We have a new group of Ggees girls on board, who are looking forward to fun times ahead with the Stratum - Balmoral Belle filly that can hopefully provide some success on the race track for everyone. Ggees is essentially a social and business networking group for ladies. The major benefit of being part of this group is having the ability to race a horse with Tony Vasil of Aquanita Racing. Ggees also provide regular social functions, that enable our members to network and enhance friendships on a professional and personal level and at the same time promote the National Breast Cancer Foundation. We welcome you and hope you enjoy your experience.

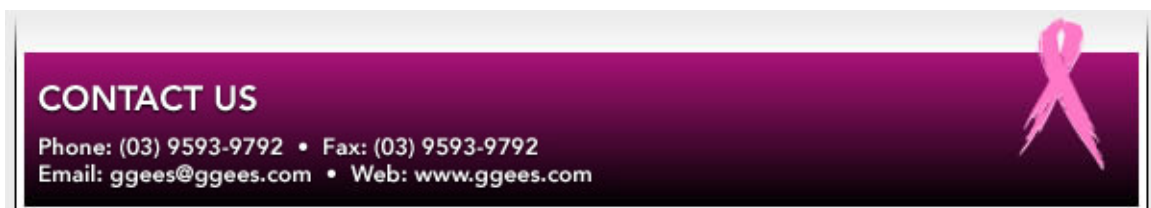

SYNDICATE

The Pink Ribbon #3 syndicate is complete and the following ladies are part of this syndicate:

Sue Lloyd-Williams, Tracey Rodway, Lauraine Diggins, Ann McHardy, Rebecca Halse, Caroline Taylor, Deb Beale, Belinda Baker, Sarah Crichton, Anna McDonald, Maureen Nicol, Joanne Vlachos, Melissa Falcone, Carolyn Jarrett, Di Gunther, Jane Whiteman, Jacqueline Noonan and Priscilla White.

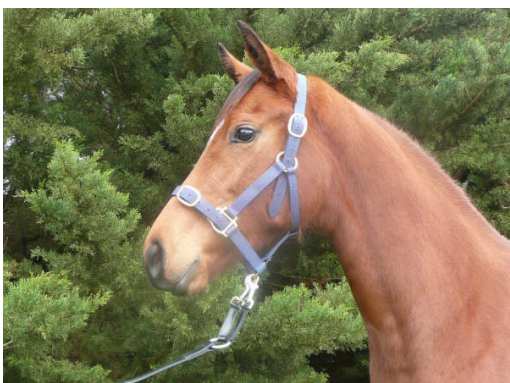

Beginning in next months Newsletter we will be doing a profile on a different Ggees member each month, so that you can get to know a little bit more about your fellow owners.

HORSE NEWS

Nick Bompas, who has finished the Stratum filly's breaking in preparation, has described her as a nice, smart filly. A little small at this stage, but well proportioned. She did everything right through the breaking process and is easy to work with. She carries herself nicely and is happy to be in training. She had barrier and track experience, upsides and between horses.

NAMING DINNER

The Stratum – Balmoral Belle filly Naming Dinner was held at Giorgio's Restaurant in Malvern on Wednesday 9 June, with a total of 11 ladies attending the night. Everyone had a good time even though it was probably one of Melbourne's coldest nights. The ladies got to meet each other and brainstorm names for the filly.
